

LEGACY GIFTS & BEQUESTS

When you include The Mississauga Food Bank in your will, you are creating a lasting legacy that will provide wholesome food for hungry children, families and seniors for years to come.

A bequest is a simple way to leave a portion of your estate as a financial gift to The Mississauga Food Bank. While simple, this type of generosity is a gift of love to your Mississauga neighbours, ensuring food is available for all who need it.

Your gift can be unrestricted to support our highest priorities, or directed to a specific area within our programming. It is helpful to communicate with The Mississauga Food Bank to ensure we can uphold your wishes and the intent of your gift.

When you have completed your will and included or added a provision for The Mississauga Food Bank, it is customary for us to express our thanks. With your approval, The Mississauga Food Bank will list your name in our print materials among the growing number of those who have included us in their estate plans. Your bequest will serve to encourage others to take that important step. We look forward to welcoming you to the Food for Life Legacy Givers Circle and celebrating your meaningful gift for years to come.

Sample Tax Information

Bequest gifts have significant tax advantages. Your estate is entitled to a charitable tax receipt for the full value of the bequest which can be applied to 100% of final taxes arising from income, deemed disposition of assets and/or capital gains. This charitable tax receipt may be used in the final return of your estate and it may be carried back to the previous year.

Example:

Margaret, a widow, leaves $10,000 to The Mississauga Food Bank and the remainder of her estate to her two children. Her bequest results in a tax saving of $4,500 (assuming a combined tax credit of 45%). If she had left the $10,000 to her children instead of giving it to The Mississauga Food Bank, taxes would have consumed $4,500 and only $5,500 would have passed to the children.
